O R D E R:

Sri R. Santhi Kumar, the then Senior Assistant, O/o the Divisional Engineer.II (Electrical-II), TTD, Tirupati, now deemed to have been resigned from TTD Services was alleged that he was absented to his duties without prior permission or sanction of competent authorities showing gross negligence and callous attitude towards his legitimate duties. Based on the report of Divisional Engineer-II(Electrical-II), TTD, Tirupati, a show-cause notice, dt. 3.8.2014 was issued to Sri R. Santhi Kumar, the then Senior Assistant, O/o the D.E.II (Electrical), TTD, Tirupati, calling his explanation for his unauthorized absence w.e.f. 24.02.2011 onwards. He submitted his explanation. On considering the explanation, the disciplinary authority passed orders to permit the Charged Officer to join duty and referred the case to TTD Medical Board for knowing the genuineness of the treatment undergone by him. The Regional Medical Board, SVRRG Hospital, Tirupati examined and opined that, the ailment was diagnosed as ACID PEPTIC DISEASE leave from 24.02.2011 to 07.11.2014 and fit to join duty. After due procedure the disciplinary authority punished the appellant as deemed to have been resigned from services in terms of G.O.Ms.No.129, Finance (FR-I) Department, dt. 01.06.2007.

2. Aggrieved by the said order, he filed an appeal on 19.7.2015 before the TTD Board, u/s 120(i) of Act 30 of 1987 with in stipulated time. The TTD Trust Board in its resolution No.159/01-11-2016, not considered the appeal of Sri R. Santhi Kumar, and the case needs no intervention as there is no justifiable reasons shown for his absence.

3. Sri R. Santhi Kumar, the then Senior Assistant, O/o the D.E.II (Electrical-II), TTD, Tirupati, now deemed to have been resigned from TTD Services has filed appeal Petition before the Government u/s 120 (ii) of the Act 30/1987. He requested to set aside the orders of the respondents and to reinstate him to TTD services, by dropping further action on the allegations leveled against him by regularizing his absence as the Medical leave based on the Medical Certificates issued by the Govt. Hospital, Chennai.

4. The Executive Officer, Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams, Tirupati has furnished para-wise remarks and relevant records and requested the Government to take necessary action in the matter. The case was called for hearing on 12.06.2017.

5. The Government after hearing the arguments and perusing the relevant records observed that the appellant being a Senior Assistant absented to his duties unauthorized for more than 3 years i.e., from 24.02.2011 to 07.11.2014. During this period even though he was under precarious health condition, he should have informed to the concerned authorities about his health condition. Otherwise should have sent leave letter through someone. But he was not at all approached the concerned authorities denoting his health conditions or for rejoining to his duties during the period instead of following the due procedure, the appellant simply pleading to consider his case on health grounds, which shows his negligence and callous attitude towards his duties.

6. The Government after careful examination, hereby reject the appeal petition of Sri R. Santhi Kumar, the then Senior Assistant, O/o the D.E.II (electrical), TTD, Tirupati, as there are no good grounds to interfere with the decision of the Board.

7. Accordingly, the appeal petition of Sri R. Santhi Kumar, the then Senior Assistant, O/o the D.E.II (electrical), TTD, Tirupati, now deemed to have been resigned from TTD Services is hereby dismissed as this case needs no intervention.

8. The original connected records pertaining to the appeal petition before the Government u/s 120(ii) of Sri R. Santhi kumar, Senior Assistant, is returned herewith.

9. The Executive Officer, Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams, Tirupati shall take necessary further action in the matter, accordingly.
